In the beginning
You really loved me
I was too blind
I couldn't see

But now you've left me
Oh, how I cried
You don't miss your water
Your well run dry

I kept you crying
Sad and blue
I was a playboy
I wouldn't be true

But when you left me
And said bye-bye
I miss my water
My well ran dry

I sit and wonder
How can this be
I never thought
You'd ever leave me

But now you've left me
Oh, how I cried
You don't miss your water
Your well run dry

You don't miss your water
Your well run dry
