Here we go! Get ready for some info
Ya wanna know how far my posse
Can grow? Worldwide!
All my brothers are colourblind
Breakin' down the barriers
Of culture and tribe comin' live!
With solutions to the problems
People ask me how? Yo! Blue!
Tell em right now pow!
Creatin' some impact
Cut down the wicky wak
Gotta face the fact Jack
Get up! Can ya give it what ya got! Shot down!
Cos ya dreamed but ya didn't contribute
To the making of a better place
Who cares about ya race
Religion colour or creed indeed
Why can't you stop and see
All we need is unity!
There's one lesson we all must learn
There's no need to fuss 'n' fight

While our pages burn

Time moves faster than prophets see

So let's get back to reality

And get some unity!

Do you find it so hard to concentrate

Are the lyrics overbearing leave ya prostrate

Try to be progressive, it's not aggressive

A captive to the beat, that's where the lesson is

Listen, hope ya get our message for some unity

Do unto those what I would like em to do to me, Unity!

Is the reality for you 'n' me not just a pipe dream as it may seem to some

The point of my reaction? Let's take some action!

It's time now everybody, demand some satisfaction

Quality not quantity, it's quite essential

There's really no denyin' it, it's preferential

Why can't you stop and see

All we need is unity!

Reverse the process of separation, get up! We've got to face the situation

Lyrics not static less problematic, designed to infiltrate your mind

It's automatic!

It's really not a question if it's heavy or light,

We're here to say what's right? That's why we own the mic,

Move on the dance floor and now you're revited
