It's me and you
And no one else is invited
Whatever they do
We'll stay forever united

For love and danger
And danger and fear
Our world will always be here
We'll stick together though it's

Bombs bombs away!
The music shatters like guns, guns!
On teenage battlefield!
Love is war, they say
You either win or fall down, down
Looks, a sword, a shield
On the teenage battlefield

And out in the night
Suburban boys' feet are stomping
And discotheque lights
Those gathering kick drums are pumping
Those born with nothing are dying for more
Their lovers are fighting or fallin'
We'll stay together though it's

Bombs bombs away!
The music shatters like guns, guns!
On teenage battlefield!
Love is war, they say
You either win or fall down, down
Looks, a sword, a shield
On the teenage battlefield

The love was danger
And danger was here
We are stronger than fear
Our world is burning and it's

Bombs bombs away!
The music shatters like guns, guns!

On teenage battlefield!
Love is war, they say
You either win or fall down, down
Looks, a sword, a shield
On the teenage battlefield
On the teenage battlefield

We're the survivors!
And we are the real stay alivers!
We're the survivors!
And we are the will be alright-ers!
We're the survivors! (Teenage battlefield!)
And we are the real stay alivers!
We're the survivors! (Teenage battlefield!)
And we are the will be alright-ers!

Bombs bombs away!
Teenage battlefield!
Bombs bombs away!
Bombs bombs away!
Teenage battlefield!
Bombs bombs away!
Bombs bombs away!
Teenage battlefield!
Bombs bombs away!
Bombs bombs away!
Teenage battlefield!
Bombs bombs away!
