Ohh no, have you ever felt lonely y y y y.

I Found out that you're in town, but you never came to see me why?

Do I lie, when I say I it's alright. It's OK I miss you anyway?

But boys do cry, yes I've seen your eyes, take your foolish pride down to town.

But do it right, and live your life like your time is now,
but don't you look down.

Oh no, have you ever felt lonely?

Oh, they will never find out about us.

It's alright, you'll be just fine now, here by my side.

Ooooo.

If I knew then, what I know now I would never let him out of sight.

Just hold me tight, it's friday night I would love to be your lucky love tonight.

Oh no, have you ever felt lonely?

But, they will never find out about us.

Alright, you'll be just fine now, here by my side. Ooooo,
ooooo.

Oooooohh.

Oh no, have you ever felt lonely?

Oh, they will never find out about us.

It's alright, you'll be just fine now, here by my side.

Ooooo.ooooo.

It's alright, it's alright, hey hey, it's alright, it's alright.

Ohhhh.
