Lost a pound of flesh in suicidal dreams
Drugged up on a London city street
I awoke without a name in hell
Found Scylla and Charybdis

An empty train awaits and now I'm headed northwest
To the beautiful Manchester sunset
And now I'm going home
But where is home?

Synthesized again, yeah, I'm flying high
Ropes are bound and my chest is tied
In the underground world of Chelsea

This is where we feel love, find life, kill time
This is where our pessimism comes to die
Here you can trade your flesh for currency

All due restraint, take a picture
With all my restraint it's my picture

Come with me to the other side
Come dance with me in the dead of night
You say, you say, you wanna live in the darkness
I'll set you free, it's a long road to hell and back

Come with me to the other side
Come dance with me in the dead of night
You say, you say, you wanna live in the darkness
I'll set you free, it's a long road to hell and back

Come with me to the other side
Come dance with me in the dead of night
You say, you say, you wanna live in the darkness
I'll set you free, it's a long road to hell and back

Oh my God...
Come with me to the other side
Come dance with me tonight
You say, you say, you wanna live in the darkness
I'll set you free, it's a long road to hell and back
