All lies these fucking wolves deny,
Pray all because of fear,
It's all because they want you to hear,
Lies, sheep in wolves disguised,
The dark before the dawn,
It's the part of you she turned on.

I don't believe in God,
Like you believe in me,
Sunlight to the sinners in this cemetery,
I don't believe in love,
Like you believe in me,
Sunlight to the sinners in this cemetery.

Life, the swelling rage filled the sky,
You brought hate, pills and knives,
And this is how the tale begins,
It's your life, exist and wonder why,
When only fails to work,
It will only fail to work sometimes.

I don't believe in God,
Like you believe in me,
Sunlight to the sinners in this cemetery,
I don't believe in love,
Like you believe in me,
Sunlight to the sinners in this cemetery.

I don't believe, I don't believe in love,
I don't believe, I don't believe in God,
I don't believe, I don't believe in love,
I don't believe, I don't believe in God...
