

William Control "The Posthumous Letter"

Visit "The Posthumous Letter" on MotoLyrics.com

Would you ever walk with me on the surface of the violet sun,
Would you give me air to breathe and show that I'm the worlds worst prodical son,
This posthumous letter I've written to give you the strength to move on.
Don't cry for me any longer I'm lost.
(Chorus)
All that I am,
All that I've seen,
Take me out of nothing.
Would you ever see the beast I've become silently
holding me tongue,
Oh I have been here all along,
This post human life,
this post morbid fear and this lonely suits me well.
Don't cry for me any longer.
I just don't love you,
I just don't love you.
(Chorus) x 3

Visit William Control page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.