Hurricane,
Hurricane Hey, hey hurricane hey,hey
hurricane She's like a bomb, that is about to explode out on the floor.
I know its dangerous
but i cant let i go.
See my mind is goes
on a trip.
And the vision of her lips tonight
and she's a star Hey, she more glamorous than a fashion show.
Miss international knows how to strike a pose
And now my hearts is skipping beats.
Cause this shorty's
looking mean tonight That's when.
I step up to her asking Can i have this last dance with you, with you, with you.
Grab your Louis V's hurry up The club is closing at five, five, five
And if you break a heel
i will carry you away in the night, night, night.-
We can sweep the floors like a hurricane
We can sweep the floors like a hurricane
We can sweep the floors like a hurricane
We can sweep the floors lika a hurricane Let's get it on Yeah let's get into it baby
This is my song and if you know it let's sing along.

Hey, dont be shy just let it out Pop it lock it, spin around Allright
I'll let you know

crazy for so long.
