wonder of the world is gone and old for sure
All the wonder that I want I found in her

As a hole becomes a part that strikes a burn
And no flame returns

Every intuition fails to find it's way
One more table turned around and back again

Finding I'm more lost than found when she's not around
When she's not around I feel it coming down

Give me what I could never ask for Connect me and you could be my chemical now

Give me the drug you know I'm after Connect me and you could be my chemical

When everybody wants you (-- the chemical comes slow

When everybody wants you (--the chemical comes slow--)
Slow and
Everybody wants you
So low and
Everybody wants you, So

Give me what I could never ask for
Connect me and you could be the chemical

Give me the drug you know I'm after
Connect me and you could be the chemical

You could be the chemical
You could be the chemical
You could be the chemical
You could be the chemical
