"Dragon Wagon"

I remember days like you'd remember years.
How'd things get so hard?
Try and get out while you still can.
Turn your back and start running.
The soldiers with the green vests and the gold caps
pulling your strings.
They're pulling your strings
and telling you things to keep you from running away.
I remember when...
Try to understand.
How'd things get so hard?
Look out.
Clear the way.
He's lost his mind again.
Look out.
Clear the way.
He's off the train again.
They're pulling your strings and telling you things.
Run away
