It seems like only yesterday
We were barely holding hands
And before our first kiss
I gazed into

Your Eyes, Shining, Like the blue sky
Heaven in Your eyes, Diamonds, Like the blue sky
Heaven inside

And you were lying in bed one day
The sun was shining through the window
Painting your face like a golden portrait
I woke you just to look into

Your Eyes, Shining, Like the blue sky
Heaven in Your eyes, Diamonds, Like the blue sky
Heaven inside

Solo

Before the sunrise
And until the sunsets
While I'm at work all day
I'm always thinking of you and

Your Eyes, Shining, Like the blue sky
Heaven in Your eyes, Diamonds, Like the blue sky
Heaven inside
