Takin' a breather. Let your air out. This can get you somewhere.

She's the queen of screamin' it out, if she lets you stand there.

She's always going for my head, running away with the keys.

She's always going for my head.

What ever happened to your song?

It's just how the radio sounds.

We used to stand alone, along.

Live in a radio sound.

Their so clever, they still love right.

I found mine underneath you.

Now you're leavin'.

Split this west coast for what you can't see through.

She's always going for my head, running away with the keys.

She's always going for my head.

What ever happened to your song?

It's just how the radio sounds.

We used to stay alone along.

Live in a radio...

Oh, oh, oh ooh.

(Live in a radio sound)

Oh, oh, oh, ooh.

Oh, oh, oh ooh.

(Live in a radio sound)

Oh, oh, oh, ooh.

She's always going for my head...

What ever happened to your song?

It's just how the radio sounds.

We used to stay alone along.

Live in a radio.

What ever happened to our song?

It's just how the radio sounds.

We used to stay alone along.
Live in a radio.
