She took me into her room
Yeah you know I couldn't get there soon enough
And she told me that no ones home
I think she's just trying to get caught

You know you turn me on
You know you turn me on now baby
And you can do no wrong
And you can do no wrong now honey

I never knew it could feel like this
She did it with just one kiss now
I never knew it could feel like this
You know she did it with just one

In the afterglow
Through the cigarette smoke
Hear a voice downstairs just like a terrible joke
I think I lost my head on the canopy bed
I think I lost my head on the bed shed

Well you know you turn me on
Well you know you turn me on now baby
And you can do no wrong
And you can do no wrong now honey

I never knew it could feel like this
She did it with just one kiss now
I never knew it could feel like this
Well she did it with just one
I never knew it could feel like this
Yeah she did with just one kiss now
I never knew it could feel like this
You know she did it with just one

I never knew it could feel like this
I never knew it could feel like this

I never knew it could feel like this
She did it with just one kiss now
I never knew it could feel like this

Well she did it with just one
I never knew it could feel like this
She did it with just one kiss now
I never knew it could feel like this
You know she did it with just one
