Chorus:

You've been gone for so long
It's time to let go
You disappeared in the shadows
Just trying to save your soul
You left me all alone
And now you're too far gone
So gone...

Verse 1:

Yeah, assume you do recall . . . Early on, assuring me
If exclusive wasn't to be, you'd always offer your friendship to me Stupidly I trusted you, but your single commitment is to treason
Truth is should have knew better and just sprinted away
I mean, it's not as if your the first bitch to mistreat me
Still I never presumed you'd stoop to a place I was sure to be just for her Even worse you knew and viewed the hurt I went through due to her
The vixen who had since ripped me shredded bits and pieces
Still true love I continued to send to you, and what do I get in return?
Nothing, not even your friendship!
Do to others, as you would have others do to you Notice it isn't fuck with others unless you just wanna fuck
No more pulling for you, I'm done being good to you
Since no one else will I will teach you
The lesson you so desperately need But know that this one comes from other than under the bed sheets
When I'm through with you, you will finally feel what it's to be human
And once you've cried for real, you will be tied to myself

And just a few inches in front of your eyes will be a mirror
Which I've put into position for you to spend an eternity . . .
A whole lifetime, looking into what it is that I feel inside

Chorus:

You've been gone for so long
It's time to let go,
You disappeared in the shadows
Just trying to save your soul
You left me all alone
And now you're too far gone
So gone...

Verse 2:

Yeah, so...I'm fixing to mess with your mind
Because you habitually dress it up and disguise
What's inside just to get high
Both physically and sentimentally alike
Guess this is as close as it gets to nonfictional excitement
Isn't that right?
Act as if it isn't - Please get offended, bitch. Try it!
At least it would partly suggest something other than this wicked witch who was sicked on me and would sit on my dick so many instances it was nearly nympho material Which hole you ask? Just pick your pick . . .
Picked on me constantly, or just fucked me on the couch - Sodomy
The symptoms of the sickness which you've witnessed since our first kiss Turned me senseless, the prescription
Was simply reminiscing a bit, almost instantly
I saw all the inconsistencies, not hit and miss either
It was essentially fizzing to pop picked them out easily
So I surmise, you are the witch I just described Who resides inside the door out from within
And into a frozen hell run all by yourself
The cold blooded devil who almost Tricked me and stole my soul.

Chorus:

You've been gone for so long
It's time to let go
You disappeared in the shadows
Just trying to save your soul
You left me all alone
And now you're too far gone
So gone...

Verse 3:

Yeah weâ€™re not in Kansas any more...
Jason masked and misinforming the masses - Fake pacts
Both are affording you as well as Taking a tad more of your worldâ€™s sense of control
I was sent to a dismal shit hole by you bitch - But I have risen
Just to avenge myself I begun this mission
Just so I could Stand up and spit in the faceless bitch Bastardâ€™s face and initiate pure and utter massacre
Happily every after definitely isnâ€™t what Iâ€™m after Aftermath is exactly and all that you will be left after
And I have to ask . . .
What is it that convinces you be this vindictive?
And indifferent with individuals you
Pick and pin as significant others?
Then pick apart until you disassemble them
Is all of this as senseless as you exhibit it as being?
Or is it some bat-shit, crazy, dementedly fucked up system?
Either way...
Itâ€™s sent me on a mission so twisted Iâ€™m beginning to think it was sent from another world or dimension Get ready because Iâ€™m it and I am descending
On this legendary chariot from which I scream FUCK
YOU
Cry an ocean for me darling
This is your real appearance...Isnâ€™t it daunting?

Chorus:

Youâ€™ve been gone for so long
Itâ€™s time to let go
You disappeared in the shadows
Just trying to save your soul
You left me all alone
And now youâ€™re too far gone
So gone
So gone
