Maybe it's too late, but this feelin' is runnin' through my soul

I think I learned what love is, but I'm afraid I let it go.

Maybe it's too late, maybe you've already changed
your mind,

Turned lovin' into leavin', and I'm on the outside.

You can take these words to bed with you, and hold on to them at night,

they can erase the emptiness, and make everything alright.

But your laughter and your tenderness, will never disappear,

No matter where you are tonight, a part of you is Here with me.

Here with me.

I don't know where you are

All I know is I need you to be

Here with me

I know it's not too late to turn around and get it straight,

It's my fate to have you here with me

I can hear your voice, promising your love will never die

I can feel your golden skin on mine, beneath the desert sky

So how can it be true, how can you just turn and let me go?

Let the story of your life with mine, forever go untold

I can take these words to bed with me, and hold on to them at night, they can erase the emptiness, and make everything alright.

Cause your laughter and your tenderness, will never disappear

No matter where you are tonight, a part of you is here with me.

(chorus)

(repeat chorus)

Here with me (are you here with me?)

I don't know where you are (don't know where)

All I know is, I need you to be, ohohwhoa,

Here with me

I know it's not too late (know it's not too late)

to turn around and get it straight

Here with me...fade out
