"One Lonely Night"

You and you're baby had some words today

Til not another word was left to say

I see that grin boy

Maybe you think you'll win boy

Until the sun goes down and once again boy

One lonely night

One lonely night

That's all it takes to completely break you

They say it's darkest right before the dawn

But oh those darkest hours can be so long

You're feelin' strong boy

Tellin' yourself she's wrong boy

But how much longer can this night go on boy

Oooh she's such a good find

Have you gone and lost your mind

You should know she's one of a kind
