"Thru The Window"

Thru the window, I slip away

Into the darkness, time has come

I must use caution, summer nights are here, I'll race
For the shadows, I'll make a trail

No one can follow, and all I feel

Is the breeze rushin by my face

Runnin free thru the night in the street

Like it best when I feel the heat

I know my baby's waitin just for me

Creepin', thru her neighborhood

I hope nobody, has seen or heard

My intentions, are driven by this flame inside

I see her light on, her silhouette's

In the window, she's waiting for

My arrival, on this summer night

Runnin free thru the night in the street

Like it best when I feel the heat

Runnin free thru the night in the street

I know my baby's waiting just for me

Runnin free thru the night in the street

I like it best when I fell the heat, oh yeah

Thru her window, she slips away

I hear her heartbeat

High emotion, takes us where we've never been before
