ANOTHER DAY Äf' Spencer Bohren, 1992

Deal the cards and play another game.

Gettin' dark. I really shouldn't stay.

Oh, the time so easy slips away.

Sun goes down. There goes another day.

Time that's lost will not be found again.

Every hour we're closer to the end.

Oh, the time - so easy slips away.

Sun goes down. There goes another day.

Once you held a dream.

But now it's slippin' through your fingers.

Don't look back. Keep steady rollin' on.

Stay on track. We're here and then we're gone.

Oh, the time - we throw our lives away.

Sun goes down. There goes another day.

Oh the time, so easy slips away.

Close your eyes. There goes another day.

Close your eyes. There goes another day.
