IN-BETWEEN FRIENDS Åf' SPENCER BOHREN, 1983

It takes more than love to see me through.

When will I see you again?

I'm back here in Memphis. I'm all by myself.

I'm lonely and in-between friends.

I don't know nobody to talk to in Memphis.

Ain't got nobody to call.

I guess I'll go find me an in-between friend.

They're better than no friends at all.

In Memphis they live the blues.

Mississippi River rolls right through.

I walked Union Avenue from end to end,

Lookin' for an in-between friend.

It takes more than love to see me through.

When will I see you again?

I'm back here in Memphis. I'm all by myself.

I'm lonely and in-between friends.
