when is this happening? don't leave too soon before I jump up to, to make my move the question is, should we begin? it's hard to tell here at the end lonely dreams, options seized, who's trusting who?
i may talk in wide circles, what else can I do?
the question is, which way is down?
it's hard to tell just being found

just keep holding out
don't go this way
you can save this route I'm on though it's getting late hope may still remain
in the fragile state
of a another day

i can't feel the thrill of this free fall now i'm too fixed on the impact that waits on the ground
the question is, which way is down?

of a another day
just keep holding out
don't go home this way you can save this route for another day
