hello waiting sun
way down here am i
please be good to me
feels so good to try
see, i lost my head
fell somewhere along
angry clouds and rains
blurring right and wrong
so what is there to lose?
oh, speaking of none
i woke up without a hope
cold fingers and numb
but writing you again
is bringing back blood
wind is picking up
warning of a flood

is what you've become all there is now?
or is there something more?

hello anxious news
tell me how you've been
all this time, oh i'm wondering again
if clocks are breaking up
falling down to floors
time that would be lost
is time completely yours
so what should i concern?
listen closely now
where i've been before?
or where i go now?
yesterday is over
is that what they say?
well goodbye fading sun
tomorrow is a day

is what you've become all there is now?
