It could've been easier to explain how I was feeling,
And you're so beautiful my girl,
All my confidence, your lack of experience.

This is the reason why
I was looking for so much more
But you were so young,
I know it's my time to shine.
I'll hold your hand for good
If you think that I should?

Open your eyes, just breathe,
So far away lying by your side.
And if you believe,
If love was such a mystery
And now we know

Shine down, shine always
And I know you are my guiding star,
And I pray this is forever.
Shine down, shine always my love.
Shine down, Shine always.

This is the reason why
I was looking for so much more
But you were so young,
I know it's my time to shine.
I'll hold your hand for good
If you think that I should?

Open your eyes, just breathe,
So far away lying by your side.
And if you believe,
If love was such a mystery
And now we know

Shine down, shine always
And I know you are my guiding star,
And I pray this is forever.
Shine down, shine always my love.
Shine down, Shine always.
