(Verse)

Let's manifest this storm and invoke the energy,
Let's channel all the mysteries into reality.
We'll bring the hurricane and release the night inside,
We'll call upon the wind and beneath the night we'll ride!

(Chorus)

It's so sweet the sound of destruction
Ringing in my mind
As we're watching Worlds Collide.
It's so sweet the sound of destruction
Ringing in my mind
As we're watching Worlds Collide.

(Verse)

Let's manifest this war and invade the territory. This means war!
Let's channel all the mysteries into a bleeding sea
We'll bring the dogs of war and release the ghosts
inside,
We'll call upon the air and beneath the storm we will ride!

(Chorus) x2

It's so sweet the sound of destruction
Ringing in my mind
As we're watching Worlds Collide.
It's so sweet the sound of destruction
Ringing in my mind
As we're watching Worlds Collide.
