You remind me of a girl I use to know
Dark skin and dark eyes that screamed oh no
Coming for you now, baby tonight
I'll sink into your body like a knife

So if you want love, I know where it's at
And if you run away, I'll get my claws in your back
Course I'm just kidding, guess we'll see about that
Cause it depends who lies, I decide who dies

You remind me of a girl I use to know
I think her eyes were blue, but then I didn't care
As long as I get what I need to survive
As long as I get I'll keep you alive

So if you want love, I know where it's at
And if you run away, I'll get my claws in your back
Course I'm just kidding, I guess we'll see about that
Cause it depends who lies, I decide who dies

I love the way you run
I love the way you scream
I love when you laugh at me
I love when you laugh at me

I love the way you run
I love the way you scream
I love when you laugh at me
I love when you laugh at me

So if you want love, I know where it's at
And if you run away, I'll get my claws in your back
Course I'm just kidding, guess we'll see about that
Cause it depends who lies, it all depends who lies
It all depends who lies, I decide who dies
