Well I, I had my hands tied tight, behind my head.
And she, she sang me a song and took me off to bed.
And when I say to her tomorrow girl I just can't stay.
But don't be sad now my darling, Ill be back some day.

I gues love has taken it's toll, well oh no, we're alright.
Two more steps and I'm on my way, well ok, all right
Oh oh I love her, oh yes I do
Oh oh I love her, and it's true
And when I sing this song
You Know I'll be moving on, but its true.
I want you. Hey!

A hey hey hey
A hey hey hey
A no no no

Well she, she told me a story how we won this war.
And I, I got another dream and i lay down on the floor.
And when I say to her. don't you bother when we're apart.
And don't be sad now my darling, I won't break your heart.

Well I think i'm leaving today, we're ok, we're alright.
Two more steps and I'm on my way we're ok, we're alright.
Oh oh I love her, yes I do.
Oh oh I love her and it's true.
Oh oh, And when I sing this song, you know I'll be moving on.
But it's true, I love you.

A hey hey hey.
A hey hey hey
A hey hey hey
Hey!
