I'll drown myself to reach you
Which way should I take?
Which one should I shun?

I believe in you
I'm in nothing and everything
I climb the steps to your heart
Blind, this life neglected me

I approached you and felt your secret

I'll drown myself to reach you
Losing it all
Letting it all go
Believing it all

I chose my path
Didn't shun everything after all
And didn't get it all

But I did choose to drown myself to get to you
