Should I come home to ya baby
Throw these dreams away-NO

Time for me to pack my bags
Can't take another day
Livin' on the road out in the cold
Now I know I've lost my way
I feel the winter I feel the wind and the rain

Remember how I held you tight
We rode right through the storm
40 days and 40 nights
Wrapped in my love I kept you warm
I feel the hunger feels like I'm slippin' away

Oh no I can't take another night
Lonely hearts as cold as ice
Frozen in the Dead of Winter

Never took a look around
To see where I was goin' to
Now I'm too far gone and I can't get back
On the track I knew
I hear you calling alone with the wind and the rain

Oh no I can't take another night
Lonely hearts as cold as ice
Frozen in the Dead of Winter

Is it too late for me now
To call it all a day
Should I come home to you baby
And throw these dreams away
Need to feel you in my arms
Before I go insane
If I throw it all away
I'll never stop the rain
No and I'm never gonna change
