I am the man in the moon
And I hope to shine upon you very soon
Waiting in the night to bathe you all in moonlight
I am the man
I am the man in the moon.

Silently revolving wandering through the heavens
above
On my own
Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know

I am a creature of the night
And I hope to come and shed a little light Although the universe our teacher I remain the central feature
I am the man
I am the man in the moon.

Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know

Silently revolving wandering through the heavens
On my own

I am the man in the moon (round and round)
And I hope to shine upon you very soon (round and round I go)
Waiting in the night to bathe you all in moonlight
I am the man
I am the man in the moon.

Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know (I am the man)
Round and round and round I go (Man in the moon)
When I stop no one will know
Round and round and round I go
When I stop no one will know
