I recognize that smile
Our winter its oh so cold
You wore your mysterious cloak
Just like a child

No careless words were said
We spoke with eyes instead
We looked into each other like long lost friends
Then you went away
And I never heard
You had a summer heat
You said the ice would kill (echo)
But you were not be caught (echo)

Chorus (*)
We have eyes like twins
Where your last thought ends my next begins always
Just one heart beat away
From everything I mean to say oh
Catch me I'm falling like you
Wish for me I'll come running to save you
Touch me I'm calling for you
Remember me I would never betray you
We have eyes like twins (echo)

I slept a thousand hours
My heart felt cold as a coward
You sent a southern breeze like a forest fire (echo)
I hear those voices too
I dreamed each dream with you
We breath as one together and we share our tears

But then I woke with you
And my dream came true
I'll never hold you here
I know when winter comes that you will disappear
(echo)

Chorus

I see red (I see red)

When you're in danger
I see you blue (I see you blue)
When you're crying
All the pictures I believe (I believe)
You are no stranger (you are no stranger stranger oooooo no stranger)

We have eyes like twins
Where your last thought ends my next begins always
Just one heart beat away
From everything I mean to say oh
Catch me I'm falling like you
Wish for me I'll come running to save you
Touch me I'm calling for you
Remember me I would never betray you
We have eyes like twins (we have eyes like twins we have eyes like twins)
Touch me I'm calling for you
Remember me
You are no stranger (we have eyes like twins)
You are no stranger (we have eyes like twins) to me
Just one heart beat away
