Lonely one, lonely one, lonely one, lonely one...oh baby.

Hey, we're falling like the rain
From the sky (Don't know why) I thought that things would change.
But, in the real world, you make it so hard
I've lost my faith in the stars
And my heart keeps on breaking

[Chorus:]
Over, and over, and over again
My heart is breaking
Over, and over, and over again

Hey, we're moving like the sea (can you take me)
Where I wanna be (where I wanna be)
It's clearer than water
My love can't be stronger
And no one's better for me

But in the real world
You make it so hard
I've lost my faith in the stars
'Cause my heart keeps on breaking

[Chorus]
Every time you leave me
I just can't believe it
Tell me why it's so hard to give you up
Over and over
Every time I tried, it hurt more inside
I should have known from the start, tell me why it's so hard

Lonely one, lonely one, lonely one, lonely one...

Please don't leave me, my heart would be such a lonely
one
I think it's time this time...(Over and over)
Don't ever leave me

Please don't leave me, my heart would be such a lonely
one

I think it's time this time...(Over and over) Ooh baby
I've got to give you up, but I don't want to let you go
I think it's time this time...

Please don't leave me, my heart would be such a lonely
one

I think it's time this time...(Over and over)
I don't, don't wanna believe that it's over
I think it's time this time...(Over and over)
Don't ever leave me, oh my heart

The fire keeps on dying in the end.
Hearts keep breaking...
