I fell, fell in a whisper
I was lost, lost in your smile
And we made time stand still
For a moment

There was a silver moon in the sky
Stars shining in your eyes
Held your hand in mine
And we danced all night

While the band played along
You whispered this love song
Always remember tonight

I miss the way that you held me
I miss, I wish you were here
But I will always hold on
If just to the memory

Of a silver moon in the sky
Stars shining in your eyes
Held your hand in mine
And we danced all night

While the band played along
You whispered this love song
Always remember tonight, tonight

When you close your eyes
Do you remember? Do you remember me?
Oh, I still feel you near me
I wish you knew the way I feel tonight

Silver moon in the sky
Stars shining in your eyes
Held your hand in mine
And we danced all night

While the band played along
You whispered this love song
Always remember tonight

Silver moon in the sky
Stars shining in your eyes
Held your hand in mine
And we danced all night
Tonight

While the band played along
You whispered this love song

Tonight, tonight, tonight
