Sunset blood drained from the sky
Desire's found the night to die
But when I hear the Bells of Madness ring
I will listen to the silence
Love is louder than anything
And peaceful in it's violence

Serious in making chains
The voices of greed all sound the same
But when I hear the Bells of Madness ring
I will listen to the silence
Love is louder than anything
And peaceful in it's violence

Fantasy is reality
I love my Fantasy
Reality is Fantasy
Just don't call it reality, oh no

Tunnel pain is falling fast
Into the fear that time will last
But when I hear the Bells of Madness ring
I will listen to the silence
Love is louder than anything
And peaceful in it's violence

I'm so tired of the lies they tell
Find the truth they can't buy or sell
But when I hear the Bells of Madness ring
I will listen to the silence
Love is louder than anything
And peaceful in it's violence

Fantasy is reality
I love my Fantasy
Reality is Fantasy
Just don't call it reality, oh no
