Maybe if I could I would shoot you up inside my vein

Feel you rushing round inside me

And maybe if I could I would let you loose inside my mind

You take me some place that I'll never ever find me

If you see my heroine tell her that she made me feel bad

Cos every time I'm with her I feel so small

My heroine, tell her that she made me so mad

Cos I need her so bad

She's not there

Maybe if I could I would get rid of all of your tears

Rip up all of your pain

And maybe if I could you would tell me how I feel inside

Kiss you in the pouring rain

bad

Cos every time I'm with her I feel so small

My heroine, tell her that she makes me so mad

Cos I need her so bad

She's not there

When she's not there
