the 26th of December
no, it was the 5th of July Oh yes
The 2nd of the New Year And here come I I'm always late for your party when your celebration is through I hope that you have got something better to lose

so I spend my daytime
alone with the sun
and at night
I just cuddle up with the moon
baby, when can I be a part of your fun Singing happy birthday all out of tune soon soon

that's not too far in the future no but I'm so lost in the past cuz I am still believing the loving will last the last
wasn't on your list
your agenda
the last player you chose for your team I'm standing here on the side, make believing a dream

so I spend my daytime
we can dance and toast the new year at noon soon

so I spend my daytime
when can I be the start of your fun let our fireworks light the sky up in June

soon, soon
