

Winans Phase 2 "Too Much Heaven"

Visit "Too Much Heaven" on MotoLyrics.com

Nobody gets too much heaven no more
It's much harder to come by, I'm waiting in line
Nobody shows too much love any more
It's as high as a mountain but harder to climb

I'm here to let you know
There's a pie beyond the sky
Made of pearly gates precious streets of gold
No more painful tears to cry

In my mind we will live in love forever
Peace will always reign and never die
Love is such a beautiful thing
So just take his hand, put your mind at ease
And he will take you there, if you just believe

Nobody gets too much heaven no more
It's much harder to come by, I'm waiting in line
Nobody shows too much love any more
It's as high as a mountain but harder to climb

Take a look around
There's confusion everywhere
People running wild to the homeless child
And it seems that no one cares

Something's wrong, when will all this hate be over
Time has come to write a different song
Love is such a beautiful thing, ooh yeah
We need to understand with an open mind
We can change the world, just give love a try

Nobody gets too much heaven no more
(Nobody gets)
It's much harder to come by, I'm waiting in line
(It's harder to come by)
(I'm waiting in line, what about love)
Nobody shows too much love any more
(Oh yeah)
It's as high as a mountain but harder to climb
(It's the hardest mountain to climb)

Love is such a beautiful thing
(Love is such a beautiful thing)
So just take his hand
(Take his hand)
Put your mind at ease
He will take you there if you just believe
[Incomprehensible]

Nobody gets too much heaven no more
(Nobody gets too much)
It's much harder to come by, I'm waiting in line
(I'm waiting in line)
(What about the love)
Nobody shows too much love any more
(Can we get it back?)
It's as high as a mountain but harder to climb
(Can we get it back?)
(Can we get it back?)
(Can we get it back, yeah?)

Nobody gets too much heaven no more
(The way we use to love)
(The way we use to break)
It's much harder to come by, I'm waiting in line
[Incomprehensible]
