Golden winged, gypsy eyes
as you soar, you softly weep...
Golden-winged, gypsy eyes
Only you can know secrets you must keep...

So spread your wings, toward the sun
Soon your flight will be done, and you will close your

Golden-winged, gypsy eyes
gliding lightly on the wind...
Golden-winged, gypsy eyes
all the broken hearts left for you to mend...

So spread your wings, toward the sun
Soon your flight will be done

Spread your wings
toward the sun, soon your flight will be done...

Spread your wings
toward the sun, soon your life will be done...

...and you will close your gypsy eyes...
