It's a Saturday night, heart of the city
The men looking hard, the women looking pretty Just a whole lot of people looking for a little paradise

But there's a guy in the crowd that's getting out of hand
He's had thirteen beers and he's screaming at the band
Show business, baby, it sure is nice...

(CHORUS:)

Let's hear it...let's hear it Hey, drummerman, beat me eight to the bar
Let's hear it...let's hear it Turn it up, turn it up, stay where you are 'Cause it's good for the body, good for the soul
To now and then get a little out of control
So...cut the bullshit, play a little rock 'n' roll
Let's hear it...let's hear it

There's a girl in the front, she's been there all night She's got an illegal body and a dress that's too tight
And all night long she's been coming on with her eyes

But she's standing with a guy about six feet four who's had one too many and he's going back for more and I'd sure like to love you but I'd also like to leave here alive...

(CHORUS)

(BRIDGE:)

You can't forget about the boys in the back room

You can't forget about the factory gates

You can't forget about the fact she let you consummate the act

And now your baby's just a couple weeks late

But nothing looks better than your baby in a sweater

but you know that got you right where you are

But things are looking bright 'cause

as of tonight

there's only six more payments to go on the car...
