you shoulda done me baby now watch what i do to you baby im leaving im leaving im leaving leaving you

i come home from work and have a glass of wine kick off my shoes and wait on you well its way past dark and youre still gone where in the world is my boo see i was fallin asleep and you were creepin in i never would have notice until when until i smelled perfume a kind i do not wear my babys been messin around again

how could i be so dumb i thought i loved a man but more and more you prove to be a bore and now i understand but i cant babysit no more thats not what i loved him for id rather be alone bye bye cause im really leavin this time

look at you know beggin down on your knees thinkin im coming back

oh child please i said i was leavin
i mean what i say theres no turning around im leavin today
im on my way

im leaving (break)

youve been bad bad bad to me baby i leaving you wont make a fool of me no more im leaving you im on my way im out the door no i cant babysit no more not what i loved him for rather be alone bye bye cause im really leavin this time dont make me cry im out the door
