Time to make you mine --- Lisa Stansfield Written by Stansfield/Devaney/Morris >From the album "Real Love"

Only in my dreams I've seen the way it's gonna be

I've waited for this moment the moment when we shared ourselves this moment can't be thought about It has to be felt

We're closer to each other closer than we've ever been Seeing things things we've never seen before

I've dreamed your fingers touch me a thousand thime Dreamed the warm skin of your body burning next to mine
Kissed you sugar lips, carressed your hips
Now we're together baby now it's time..
time to make you mine
time to make you mine

The sweet anticipation of hands I know with touch me soon
Two fascination shadows move in time

Spoken..

I know what it's gonna be me and you you and me I thought that it would never be I only knew it in my dreams
Even though you're here with me
I never thought I'd feel such ecstasy

We're closer to each other
Seeing things things we've never seen before
