Trial and error will take you there
On your journey to find the cure
Day after day you race against the time
Dig in your skin and bones with dissecting knives

Mixing up the chemicals
Getting deep inside your world
Looking for the formula to make it right
Searching for the medicine
To take you higher than you've ever been
There's no easy way in
No easy way in
There's no easy way in

Experiment with blood and oxygen
For just another rush of adrenaline
God knows that every time you get so close
Walking a thin white line to a lethal dose

Mixing up the chemicals
Getting deep inside your world
Looking for the formula to make it right
Searching for the medicine
To take you higher than you've ever been
There's no easy way in
No easy way in
There's no easy way in

Day after day you race against the time
Dig in your skin and bones with dissecting knives

Mixing up the chemicals
Getting deep inside your world
Looking for the formula to make it right
Searching for the medicine
To take you higher than you've ever been
There's no easy way in
No easy way in
There's no easy way in
No easy way in
There's no easy way in

There's no easy way in
There's no easy way in
