At the red light a broken windshield
Blue highway golden field
You made it this far and can't turn back
To Spanish moss and railroad tracks
Little demons you left behind
Will they always haunt your mind

Misguided angel
Where you gonna go
Buried in the snow
No one there to help you
No one seems to care
Can you make it on your own without a prayer?

Highschool sweetheart a beauty queen
Riding shotgun on a summer's eve
Love came quickly and candy sweet
Changed your life forever in the back seat

Misguided angel
Buried in the snow
No one there to help you
No one seems to care
Can you make it on your own without a prayer?
Can you make it on your own
Can you make it on your own

Passage of time it's all in your mind
You've paid your dues you don't have to lose
It's time to go and take what you know
Step on the gas get out of here fast

Misguided angel
Buried in the snow
No one there to help you
No one seems to care

Can you make it on your own without a prayer?

Can you make it on your own

Can you make it on your own

Can you make it on your own

Can you make it on your own
