BROKEN WINGS - 10/04/1953
1 week at #1 - 11 weeks on chart

With Broken wings, no bird can fly
And broken promises mean love must fade and die
I trusted you, you can't be true
My heart no longer sings
It's wings are broken too

Life was wonderful
I flew as high as a bird in the sky
Dreaming of you
Dreams coming true
Then in your eyes
I saw lies in disguise
You broke my heart in two

With Broken wings, (With Broken wings)
No bird can fly (No bird can fly)
And broken promises mean love must fade and die

With Broken wings, no bird can fly
My heart no longer sings
It's wings are broken too
