SPACE PUNK:

She's Milady and I love her
She's the one I spend my whole day thinkin' of
Her etiquette's so delicate,
I get so high just bein' by my lady.
She's above me, far above me,
But someday I hope she'll learn to love me
She's my lady - someday she's gonna be my girl
My lady, Milady.

When she went away I felt so bad I cried
If she doesn't come back, I think I'll die inside
I ought to know where Milady's gone
Perhaps you know where she is?
I'd like to know why she had to go, oh why, why oh...?
Can't I find her? I could find her
She may be mad at me so don't remind her
That she's my lady, someday she's gonna be my girl.
My lady, Milady, my lady girl.

I don't know why I feel so shy but when she passes by
I get kinda high and heave a great sigh as if I could die
Or touch the sky - I think that I love Milady, oh!
Call me macho, a hot-to-trot Joe
Rude, unruly, but I know I'm not so bad
Cause she's my lady, some day she's gonna be my girl.
[PUNK'S SPEECH]

She's so dainty, bright and clever
She's so lovely wanna love her forever and ever
She's my lady, someday she's gonna be my girl
She's my lady and I wish she'd come back to me
She's Milady and I wish she'd come back to me
She's my lady and I wish she'd come back to me now
We'd have a time, I'd love her and I'm Hopin' maybe my lady will be my girl.
