Head down...are we there yet?

And the drive always seems so much shorter the way home,

Eyes wide open, but barely awake.

Do you think that it would have been better?

Do you think?

Maybe we would be asking the same thing,

and on the other handâ€¦

Sure it wouldn't hurt to see a different face for a change.

You know.

So why don't you say so and slow down right now

'cause we just stand here saying nothing,

Going nowhere...

So what do we know?

At a faster pace it seems more compelling,

And I guess that's what they sold us on

Is this what we wanted,

Back when we started?

(We're right back where we started)

You know

So why don't you say so and slow down right now

'cause we just stand here saying nothing,

Going nowhereâ€!

So what do we know?

Is this what we wanted?

We're right back where we started

Is this what we wanted?

We're right back where we were

Is this what we wanted?

We're right back where we started

Is this what we wanted?

We're right back where we were
