"Make it a note to take your pills," she said
"I'll leave them on the table in the same brown bottle
you know."
She said, "It's good to have you home."
The second I smelt the scent of my own house I said it.
"Send just one postcard home,
And call as often as you can to tell us how it goes.
Let us know."

"Make it a note to make a point." he said
That's good advice I'll take it
Now I'll start to use it to know
Sentence long messages
From me to you to let you know I'm ok
I'll let you know

I'm out making you proud
So don't wait up, I'll be home soon
I'm out of town for now
You're what makes it home that I'll come back to

"Make it a note to take your time," they begged
"Take baby steps to everywhere, and come home in one piece to us."
You know, it's so good to be home
And know that when I hit the road
I'm thinking of you both, I miss you

"Send just one postcard home,
And call as often as you can to let us know how it goes.
Let us know."

I'm out making you proud
So don't wait up, I'll be home soon
I'm out of town for now
You're what makes it home that I'll come back to

Thank you for everything

I'm out making you proud
So don't wait up, I'll be home soon
I'm out of town for now
You're what makes it home that I'll come back to
