Once I read your name
And I heard your stories
That i was just coming to get enough
Now where'd you go
Cause i've been waiting
To see you right before my eyes

They look so good in the pictures
How come they're not around?
They still live
They're way up high
Where they've been dying out to the world

So now i cross my arms
And i keep my eyes closed
Cause I can barely stand to watch
Now that you're gone
And i have disappointments
Like i can never get enough

They look so good in the pictures
How come they're not around?
They still live
They're way up high
Where they've been dying out
Yeah but they look so good in your pictures
How come they're not around?
They still live
They're way up high
Where they've been dying out to the world

And i will wash my hands
Of all your cheap imatations
As a payment
For all the pain you've given me

They look so good in the pictures
How come they're not around?
They still live
They're way up high
Where they've been dying out

Yeah but they look so good in your pictures
How come they're not around?
They still live
They're way up high
Where they've been dying out to the world
