What's the worse that could happen to me
I guess I'll wait and see
What the world has got for this
Fish out of water fleeting absentee
That's all I aim to be,
Swimming aimlessly to find my way back home
That's how it goes, how it will always be
And that sounds fine to me
As long as I can find my way back...
Here in my place
And I don't really don't know what difference it makes
Where I am as long as what I do is right

'Cause I'll be...
Hanging out,
Maybe it's time to run
I'll be home when I can
Don't know when I'll be back again
No I don't know when

Why, why, why aren't you answering?
Are you avoiding me
And your problems and everyone you know?
You know you got me wrong so terribly
I am not scared to leave
I am hesitant at most to say the least
That's how I am, how will always be
And that's alright to me
Well as long as I can find my way back...

Hanging out,

Maybe it's time to run
I'll be home when I can
Don't know when I'll be back again

Well I'm still...
Hanging out,
Well maybe it's time to run
I'll be home when I can
I don't know when I'll be back again

No I don't know when

So what's the worse that could happen to me
And will eventually?
And I'll just wait, I'll wait
I'll be...

Hanging out,
Maybe it's time to run
I'll be home when I can
Don't know when I'll be back again

We'll I'm still...
Hanging out,
Maybe it's time to run
I'll be home when I can
Don't know when I'll be back again
No I don't know when
