"Passion's Quest"

Visit "Passion's Quest" on MotoLyrics.com

In the time of silence
I saw a trace for my will to be

While in the remnants of my heart
I saw them shine through clouded eyes

In the depths of the night
I reached beyond the brightest stars...

And I touch your wings with my remorse
As I drain my fountain of spring
My deepest reverence
My exposed serenity

From the depths of my boundless heart
I pledge myself to thee

My days of novelty have decayed
I find myself at the end of infinity
I gaze to see the angels...
