There's a fire

I was born onto the earth
Mama died on the night of my birth
I grew up with no place to jam
Just hearing the talk of somewhere remembering

When all the children sang
And all you heard was the word
It's funny how we've changed
We're getting closer

To the day, we'll never see
The rising sun, it's setting
In the day, we'll never see
What have we done?

Crucify, while you stand by
You hear the call, don't blink an eye
Where will you go? Nowhere to run
What can we save when the damage is done?

The world is spinning round
The light of the moon is now the tear of the clown
Hear the word, it's coming down
We're getting closer

To the day, we'll never see
The rising sun, it's setting
In the day, we'll never see
We're getting closer

To the day, we'll never see
The rising sun, it's setting
In the day, we'll never see
What have we done?

The world is spinning round
The light of the moon is now the tear of the clown
Hear the word, it's coming down
We're getting closer, getting closer

To the day, we'll never see
The rising sun, it's setting
In the day, we'll never see
What have we done?
What have we done?

To the day, we'll never see
The rising sun, it's setting
In the day, we'll never see
The time has come
The time has come

To the day, we'll never see
In the day, we'll never see
In the day, we'll never see
In the day, we'll never see
In the day, in the day
