a song about how gay high school really is...

I've never been across the sea
I hope to go eventually but hope can change and probly will and thats fine...

I've never been up to the moon
I hope to reach you very soon But feelings change; they're never still yeah thats right...

CHORUS

when we were young and looked up to those kids on the playground
Well now we're them and the love is not found
You say im down but i know i'm no fool
CODENAME DELICIOUS when you get to high school

I've always been an optimist but it seems i cant get over this well feelings change fortunately right on time...

I've always thought that things improve lately it seems that things wont move when things dont change infinitely its not right...
